

Excerpt from the Prologue of Ticket to Ride by Don Hussey

This memoir began as a letter to my son Gregory dated September 9, 2006—a few weeks before his deployment to Iraq as a field artillery officer with the United States Army. My letter was an attempt to detail for him my life as a young boy growing up on the South Shore in Massachusetts—time and events he knew little about or could never have imagined.